

2008/2009 Season
Cambridge Community Orchestra
"A KLASICAL KALEIDOSCOPE"

SATURDAY NOVEMBER 22, 2008
8:00 PM

ORCHESTRAL SAMPLER

Join us for this special opening concert of the season as the Cambridge Community Orchestra unite with the Kitchener-Waterloo Community Orchestra.

Maestros Daniel Warren and Sabatino Vacca will not only alternate on the podium, but will also be featured as soloists in concerto movements.

WAGNER, Die Meistersinger Overture

HAYDN, Trumpet Concerto, 1st mvmt.

GRIEG, Piano Concerto, 3rd mvmt.

SIBELIUS, Karelia Suite, last mvmt

COPLAND, Corral Nocturne

VERDI, Triumphal March from Aida

RAVEL, Bolero

This concert will be repeated on
Sunday November 23 at 2:30 p.m. at
First Baptist Church, 306 Erb Street West, Waterloo.

SATURDAY DECEMBER 20, 2008
8:00 PM

CHORAL AND DANCE

The Cambridge Kiwanis Boys Choir will be sure to delight with seasonal choral selections. Excerpts from Tchaikovsky's beloved Nutcracker will once again be presented by dancers from the studio of Michele Hopkins.

SATURDAY MARCH 21, 2009
8:00 PM

CHAMBER DELIGHTS

Beethoven's crowning achievement in the realm of chamber music is his Triple Concerto.

Come and hear the renowned Trio Laurier as they perform this majestic jewel.

By contrast the Hungarian Dances of Brahms are miniature gems, beautifully capturing the heart of the gypsy soul.

BEETHOVEN, Triple Concerto in C major, op. 56

Soloists: Trio Laurier

Stephen Sitarski – Violin

Paul Pulford – Cello

Leslie De'Ath – Piano

Chamber Work – TBA

BRAHMS, Hungarian Dances

SATURDAY JUNE 6, 2009
8:00 PM

VOCAL SPLENDOUR

Join us as we conclude our season with an evening of your favorites from the world of opera, operetta, and musical theatre.

Talented singers will perform works by MOZART, VERDI, PUCCINI and others.

All concerts (except November 23rd) are held in Cambridge at
Forward Baptist Church
455 Myers Road.
Admission is free.
